Dear Mr. Kovalchik,

I am writing to voice my support for building a Costco in Guilderland. As a frequent shopper in the area, I believe that bringing Costco to Guilderland will help to drive down competitor's prices and offer a unique shopping experience for customers. Moreover, Costco would be a great addition to the town because of their emphasis on community outreach and charitable donations. Their focus on children, education, health and human services perfectly aligns with the community values within the Town of Guilderland. Overall, I think it would be a great and distinctive addition to the area.

Sincerely,

Mary Schoonover
