Dear Mr. Kovalchik,

I am a young professional currently working in the area. I come to Guilderland frequently to shop at Crossgates Mall and was excited to hear about the proposed project to bring Costco and residential apartments to the town. I believe that the apartments being so close to Crossgates and Costco would entice young professionals to consider moving to Guilderland and would be a boost to the local economy. I hope that you will consider moving forward with this project.

Sincerely,

Gillian Hance
