Dear Mr. Csaposs,

My name is Yanan Hou and I have been a proud Guilderland resident for almost seven years. I'm writing to you to express my firm support to the Costco project at Guilderland. The Costco project will be a perfect example for Guilderland's commitment to a friendly pro-business environment so more businesses will be attracted to the town. More tax income for the town will enable us to become a safer and more open district with better education system, which could in turn attract more businesses. I look forward to a bright future for Guilderland with such positive feedback loop being established. I have no doubt that it will become reality under the leadership of a wise and visionary leader like you.

Regards,
Yanan
